TORRE DE PALMA

With its contemporary twist on classic Portuguese style, this boutique hotel and winery offers ample opportunity to enjoy the region's historic past

Nestled deep in the Alentejo wine region of southern Portugal sits Torre de Palma, where Ana Isabel and Paulo Barradas Rebelo have created a convivial setting for sampling the offerings from the surrounding vineyards. Recently renovated, the 14th-century farm estate comprises a gleaming white manor house surrounded by long ranch-style buildings, which house 19 guest rooms. In a nod to the estate's heritage, designer Rosarinho Gabriel has fashioned relaxed interiors that are a distinctive mix of the traditional and modern. Whitewashed walls provide a fitting backdrop for period furniture, finished with carefully chosen accessories, for a rural escape rooted in local culture.

NEED TO KNOW Rooms start from €150 a night. ■ There is an indoor and outdoor pool, spa, winery, bar and cinema room. ■ The hotel restaurant, Basilio, offers a tasting menu showcasing seasonal produce, as well as cooking workshops. ■ Vineyard tours, grape picking, wine tasting and horseback riding are available. ■ Lisbon Portela is the nearest airport, around a two-hour drive away. ■ Herdade de Torre de Palma, Monforte 7450-250, Alentejo, Portugal, 00351 245 038 890, torredepalma.com.
